THE CALLER - GRAHAM CHRISTIAN

Graham Christian is a historian, musician, and writer, and his recent publication, "The Playford Assembly: 125 Early English Country Dances, 1651 – c. 1820" has been celebrated at the Library of Congress and by international audiences. He is a regular contributor to CDSS News and continues to pursue larger projects at the intersection of choreography and social history. Complementing his unparalleled knowledge of English country dance history, Graham's clear, precise teaching style and his richly crafted programs of dances old and new put him in great demand as a caller across the United States and beyond.
